THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioye and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a brieffe Concordance, or large & ample Index; collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy commoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, y<sup>e</sup>, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the sayde Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselves in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to be founde here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrew, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & wordes are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed by Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the ende not onely such corruptions as are found for want of the true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skillfull in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskillfull Readers be not defrauded of such comodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any worde in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the sayde Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselves placed all, and as many proper and vsuall English wordes, as are contained in the same Byble, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences; and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian fayth and Religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessarie instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdom, or his love, his mercie, or his truth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else concerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Lawe, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be brieffe, if thou wouldest vnderstande what is necessarily to be learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops and Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands and Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselves towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods worde: thou art not voide of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, River, Idoll, &c. in the same conceyned: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or common place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them shalt thou, by Gods grace, without faile be conduced, and to thy great ease directed, and as it were, leade by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter, and Verse, of the same, (or so much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessarie knowledge shall be thought requisite) is to be found out most readily: alwayes remembering, that whatsoever conuenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreover, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that the first Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt be guided, signifieth or signifieth the Chapter; and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the fore-said things is to be sought for. Again, where as thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward vnto the end thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applied to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekst for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I haue sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very wordes them selues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that will not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same coulde, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vsed not so great a curiositie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: and yet cōsidering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are grown vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bin forced to leaue out somewhat, that otherwise I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contentes, commoditie, and vse of the aforesaid Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter, which is vsed in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trauaile and paines taken herein shalbe well accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers, to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessarie and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents will stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader, (vnto whome I confesse my selfe the greatest debtour) as an ayd and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of al men, as a means and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shal for my part thinke my selfe well requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shal enioy my desire, & that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almighty God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vnitie, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij. of December.

Anno Domini,

1. It is a fact that the United States has a large and growing population of people who are not citizens of the United States. These people are known as "aliens" or "non-citizens." They are people who have been born in other countries and have come to the United States for various reasons, such as to work, to study, or to join their families. Some of these people are "legal aliens," meaning they have been admitted to the United States by the government. Others are "illegal aliens," meaning they have entered the United States without proper authorization. The United States has a long history of immigration, and the population of non-citizens has grown steadily over the years. This growth has led to a variety of social and economic issues, such as the need for language and cultural education, the impact on the labor market, and the challenges of integration into American society. The United States government has a responsibility to address these issues and to ensure that all people living in the United States are treated fairly and with respect for their rights.
